IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

White of the New York Tribune is at Weldon.

Cuthbert of the New York Herald has gone to Charlotte, to do up a little "hanging" case.

Capt. S. T. Williams.—As before stated, Capt. S. T. Williams, the Political Editor of this paper, is on a pleasure tour North. En route to Saratoga he paid a promised visit to Col. Filkins, of Albany, N. Y., at whose residence he was the recipient of a public serenade from the citizens, an account of which appeared in the morning papers of that city. Capt. Williams concludes his address on the occasion as follows:

But I have spoken longer than I intended. I will only say in the conclusion, speaking as a Southern man, that the people of North Carolina are ready, willing, anxious to forget the past and to unite with the North in building up in the future a great, glorious and happy country. We want to forget the remembrance of war—we want a permanent peace. Not the peace of Warsaw or the peace of the bayonet, but a peace founded on confidence, brotherly affection and love. I know that the South is anxious to clasp hands with you across the bloody chasm—(Tremendous cheering.) I know that the sentiments of Mr. Boutwell at Greensboro, when he protested against this clashing of hands, did not find a response in the hearts of the true patriots of America. (Cheers.) I believe the whole country is tired of dissension; I believe that the whole people are ready and anxious for a lasting peace. We are ready to join hands with you as common brethren to preserve the blessings of constitutional liberty, and hand down its government unimpaired to posterity forever, and I believe this will be accomplished by the election of Horace Greeley in November next.

THE PEABODY EDUCATION FUND.— The following is the plan of distribution of the Peabody Education Fund: Donations are not made to colleges, academies, or any private, sectarian, or schools.

There will be given for well regulated Public Free Schools, continued about ten months of the year, and having a regular attendance of not less than 100 pupils, averaging 85 per cent, $300 150 " " " " " " 550
100 " " " " " " 600
250 " " " " " " 800
300 " " " " " " 1000

The people are to pay for current expenses at least twice as much as they receive from the fund, and bear all expense of erecting, repairing and furnishing school houses. They are to grade their schools and provide a teacher for every fifty pupils.

Applications for assistance should be addressed to Rev. B. S. D. C.
Stanton, Va., and forwarded to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Raleigh, N. C. The application for each school should state the facts of the case briefly and clearly, and be approved by the School Committee of the Township in which the school is situated. No claim for a share of the fund can be admitted where a special contract has not been previously made.

NOBLE.—We make an extract from a private letter to show what sacrifices in the cause of Democracy our friends are making:

"I and — are on a big 'loaf'. We are principally employed in supporting a bar belonging to a negro who has recently been converted to conservatism.
Virtue deserves encouragement and we are religiously doing our level best."

COOLING OFF—THE EXCITEMENT OVER.—Mr. White, the correspondent of the New York Tribune, in his telegram to that paper from this city dated on the 7th, says:

A stranger arriving in Raleigh, today, would suppose that some dreadful calamity had befallen the city. The people have returned to their places with long faces and sad hearts. The telegraph office, which, for a week, has been thronged almost to suffocation, is almost deserted. The only parties who have been working night and day, and who are entirely exhausted, are relieved, and business has returned to its accustomed channels. The coolest among the Conservatives did not finally give up the State until this morning.

The news of last evening was very discouraging, but Merrimon's election still seemed possible, while the majority against him, as far as reported, was only 300 or 400, with several western counties to hear from, and the returns from many of them to be corrected; but when by mail and telegraph the official votes of nearly half the counties in the State came in this morning and showed Caldwell's majority to more than 1,000 votes they were forced to give up and admit the Administration triumph.

And yet the election is far from being a complete triumph for the Grant party.
The Governorship of this State is only an empty honor unless the incumbent has the Legislature to back him. I know that it will be said that the Liberals would not have thought so had they carried the State, but the fact is that the Governor in this State has no power to veto a bill, and can therefore in no way affect legislation except by his personal influence. He has no important appointments to make, unless a judicial vacancy occurs, when he can name a Judge pro tem. His duties are, therefore, comparatively unimportant except in extraordinary times. On the other hand, the Conservatives have in the first place chosen a majority of the members of Congress, and will send to Washington another Senator in accord with the Liberal Administration, should that party be successful in the November election. In gaining the Legislature they also get rid of John Pool, as the people here all call their senior Senator. This man, North Carolinians look upon as the author of all their woes, and had they been asked before the election to choose between defeating John Pool and being defeated with John Pool in the Senate another six years, they would have unhesitatingly chosen the former.

Almost the only thing that gives this apparent Administration success any importance is that it seems to indicate that the State is for Grant by a small majority. This, I think, is a mistake.
If the official majority proves to be as small as it now promises to be, Judge Merrimon will contest the election with good prospects of success. There is no doubt that there was fraudulent voting by negroes all over the State, especially in the East. In Raleigh the names of no less than 400 men were found registered who were not entitled to vote, and it was only by the vigilance of the Liberals that they were not cheated to that amount right here in the capital of the State. The same thing was done in all of the principal railroad towns west of here, but in the east the names were not only registered, but the votes were actually cast. It can be easily proven that in Brunswick and Bladen counties at least 800 illegal votes were given. In one eastern town the election went on from sunrise until noon without the registration books. There is also positive proof of the importation of negroes from Virginia into Beaufort and other counties, $25,000 having been used by the Administration in one county alone.

The Grant men are very jubilant today, and predict that the State will go for Grant almost without effort by 10,000 or 15,000 majority. The Conservatives have little to say, but are already preparing for the campaign, and will give the Administration a harder contest between now and November than they have had this Summer.

THE RADICAL TORCH LIGHT PRO-CESSION AND POW-WOW.—In accordance with previous programme, the Rads reluctantly came to time on their grand torch light procession, with about 7 or 800 negroes and 7 white men Wednesday night. Young Jenkins, the Treasurer's son, seems to have been "the little bull in the lead," as he rode the highest and longest tail horse, a few paces in advance of his valiant aids, Tim Lee, the Sheriff, and Theodore Joseph, the Dutch postal route agent.

White, the Register of Deeds, and Magnin, the Coroner, occupied a position in the centre of the procession on a one horse wagon. The only private we noticed in the ranks with the negroes were Colonel W. F. Henderson (Windy Billy) and P. F. Perry, both of the Revenue Department. We learn, though we did not see him, that Col.
Thos. B. Long was also in the consolation.

The line of march marked out by burning tar-barrels was purposely so arranged as to pass by the residence of Judge Merrimon, where groans, hisses and insulting epithets were freely indulged in.

The negroes, it is true, were in the street, and led on by white men who made them drunk for the purpose, we presume they had a right to say and do what they please; we therefore make no special complaint, but call upon all good citizens, young and old, to remember the rabble that passed Judge Merrimon's residence on the night of 8th of August, especially the leaders whom we regard wholly responsible for this outrage upon decency and good morals.

After parading the streets, the rabble halted in front of the Court House, where they were harangued by Gov.
Caldwell, Capt. Thos. Settle, Wiley Jones, James Harris and a number of other lesser lights. After wearing out the audience, the speakers retired, and the rabble scattered from whence they came.

THE ENTHUSIASM.—We were attacked on the streets yesterday by several of the Rads, who bitterly complained of our extravagant remarks, as they termed it, in saying there was a wonderful lack of enthusiasm exhibited in the procession of the drunken rabble on Wednesday night. We still claim with more vehemence than before that there was a wonderful lack of enthusiasm on the occasion. In support of this assertion, we bring the following facts to bear:

Who besides the drunken negro rabble, whose enthusiasm would have been equally as great over a hand organ and a performing monkey any day in front of the Market House, composed that procession? We answer, not upon heresay, but from the evidence of our own eyesight, in which we are not, cannot be mistaken.

Young Jenkins, the son of the Treasurer, rode the horse with the highest head and straight tail, at the head of the negro rabble, and we therefore suppose him to be Chief Marshal. We must confess that we were surprised in finding young Jenkins with such company, especially as he had more reputation at stake than most of his brethren of the party.

The next in suit was Tim Lee, the sheriff. He being used to such assemblages had nothing to lose in reputation, and we pass on to Theodore Joseph, the German mail route agent.— As well known that Joseph was perfectly at home at the head of a band of negroes.

The balance of the white men in the procession were Windy Billy Henderson, Revenue Assessor, P. W. Perry, (Long Perry) Supervisor of Revenue, Magnin, the Coroner, and White, Register of Deeds.

These were all the white men we saw in the procession, and yet we are called to task when we say there was a wonderful lack of enthusiasm.

We repeat it, and moreover repeat the assertion above, that we can with the same amount of whiskey used on the occasion arouse the same enthusiasm any day on the streets of Raleigh with a performing monkey and a hand organ.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT.—The largest and most enthusiastic meeting that has been known in the Court House since the campaign, was held last night, the occasion being the special meeting of the Greeley and Brown Club.

Dr. H. J. Menninger, 1st Vice President, presided in the absence of the President, Chas. M. Busbee, Esq. The meeting was addressed by Col. J. P. H.
Russ, Rev. J. Britton Smith, E. C.
Woodson and others.

Arrangements were made for a grand jollification meeting and torchlight procession one night next week. Many new members came forward and enrolled their names. The grand work goes bravely on.

ANOTHER DARING OUTRAGE.—We learn that the private chamber of the Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., the bold, daring and fearless Editor of the Sentinel, was fired into at Hillsboro Thursday night by some unknown Radical scamp.
This is the second occurrence of the same thing within the space of twelve months. The first time, as also this, Mr. Turner narrowly escaped the intended aim of the assassin.

Mr. Turner was telegraphed to yesterday evening and left immediately on the western train for his home.

BALL AT KITTELLS.—We learn that the ball at Kittrells Springs cannot take place on the 20th, as expected, owing to there being no room for the large crowd who would attend. It will however come off between the 20th and 30th, when our young people may again expect a merry time, as Kittrells never fail to draw when the Black-nails call on the people.

The friends of this popular resort will doubtless be highly gratified at the deferment when they are satisfied that it is caused by the great success of the worthy proprietors.

FELL IN THE WELL.—Annie Yates, a notorious dupe of Fayetteville street, while slashing around in the old Gales lot, in rear of the Sentinel office, during the progress of the speaking at the Court House, on Wednesday night, fell in a half filled well, from which perilous situation she was rescued by the police.

Fortunately for her, but not so for the community, she escaped uninjured.

ARRESTED.—Willis McNeil, arrested by officer Hunter Friday morning, for attempting to create a disturbance in and near the market, was accommodated with quarters in the guard house until his metal could cool down.

RALEIGH, N. C., March, 1872.
Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine."
We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families, it is a "sine qua non." We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., and of which we have been very proud to display the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of ticking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost.

What the Outside World Thinks of the "Victory" in North Carolina.

The papers of our sister States look upon the recent election of Caldwell in this State as a National defeat to Radicalism—the victory being only in count, while a terrible blow has been administered to Grant by the honest voters of North Carolina.

(From the Norfolk Journal.)
The election of Caldwell affords the Administration party an opportunity in general, in some degree, the effects of the stunning blow that has been given it by the men of the Liberal Movement in North Carolina. And it is especially fortunate for the Radicals, that the first news was so favorable to the Conservatives as to lead them to believe and to proclaim that Judge Merrimon has been elected. It gave them the advantage of a reaction encouraging to them and depressing to us.

We have secured the Legislature; and that secures to North Carolina and to the country a Conservative Senator, in the place of the Radical colleague of General Ransom. We have elected a majority of the members of Congress; and that assures us of a great gain of strength to the defenders of the Constitution in the councils of the Union.

We have shown that the Liberal Movement is a movement of might as well as of right; and that gives courage and confidence to timid men who like the cause but are afraid to embrace it.

We have achieved a victory in the first battle between the advance guards of the two armies; and that assures us that nothing is needed but fidelity to the great principles, and great purpose of the coalition that has been formed, to make Horace Greeley the next President of the United States.

The election of Caldwell enables the Radicals to retire from the fight in good order, and to save their wags as they retreated from the field on which they have been beaten. But that is all.
They are whipped in North Carolina, and they know it, and feel it. They have been checked in their mad career by the Liberal Movement. The alliance of Liberal Republicans, Democrats and Conservatives is too formidable for them.

We have not won such a victory in North Carolina as we had hoped to win, as, for several days past, we were confident had been won; but it is better, far better, than a drawn battle ever after the last and worst returns have reached us; it is a decided victory for the Liberal Movement, and a guarantee of success for Horace Greeley.

North Carolina has accomplished for herself all she could accomplish by the election of Judge MERRIMON; and for the great cause of the Constitutional party of the Union she has done more than, under all the circumstances, the country had a right to ask or reason to expect.

(From the N. Y. Tribune.)
The Western counties do not show the large gains for Merrimon which our friends at Raleigh expected. Whether this is solely due to the terrorism produced by adroit threats of prosecution under the Internal Revenue laws, or arrest for alleged participation in the Ku Klux outrages of the last year, or two, or whether it is to be attributed directly to false counting after it had been ascertained how much was needed, cannot yet be definitely stated. But it is believed that sufficient facts are already in Judge Merrimon's possession to warrant him in undertaking a contest. Meantime, though we lose the Governor, the substantial fruits of victory remain with us. We have carried five out of the eight Congressmen; have defeated Mr. Settle, President of the President's renominating Convention; have swept the Legislature, thus securing the defeat of John Pool, the odious Senator; and have in our hands the power of installing Merrimon provided the honest returns should show him fairly elected. All this is far more than we had any right to IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano in his speech at Raleigh.

BEWARE.

Surely the people of the United States cannot be blind to the destruction of those principles of government which have obtained in this country since the foundation of the Republic, nor can they ignore the fact that strides towards a despotism are being daily made by the Republican party; that the liberties of the people are being destroyed by the ruthless hand of a party which is in every sense of the term governed by no policy whatever.

Denial of the trial by jury, refusal of the writ of Habeas Corpus, attempts to intimidate at elections, are some of the fruits of the conduct of the people's affairs by this corrupt and unscrupulous party.

An infringement of one principle, or a violation of one provision, of the constitution, but invites to a farther exercise of this power, each one is committed with less scruple, until finally the whole is ignored and the people become the slaves of a few.

The Grant party is attempting this very thing to day and we tell the people of our country that their liberties are in danger; no one can foresee the effects of another four years administration of President Grant and while it is not too late, we charge them to beware.

BE VIGILANT.

Although it is some time yet to the Presidential election, the campaign will soon open in earnest and the friends of Mr. Greeley should not remain idle.

The theatre of war will be chiefly in the North and West, for it is there that the contest must be decided and there that both parties will exert their strength in the interests of their respective candidates. From these fields we hear flattering reports of the disaffection towards Grant and the increasing popularity of the Greeley movement and the efforts of the Reformers should not be relaxed; the movements of the opposition should be looked into, for a prostitution of the right of the ballot, will be attempted, money, from the pockets of the tax-payers, will be used in favor of Grant, the whole influence of the Administration will be yet to advance the cause of the Radicals, in the face of these facts, we fear not for the result; only, we counsel our friends to be vigilant, and we believe that enough of patriotism is left in the bosoms of the American people to hurl from power the corrupt administration of President Grant, we believe there is a strong and increasing desire in their minds to inaugurate an era of reform and a happy feeling between the different sections of the country and the lessons taught in the past will stimulate them to bring about this result. To accomplish this we tell our friends to be vigilant.

OVATION.

Mr. Greeley's tour through the New England States is a continued ovation. Everywhere, he is welcomed by the firing of cannon and the shouts of the people.

These evidences of approval on the part of the people must indeed be pleasing to the Reformer's candidate for the Presidency.

The popular heart has fixed its hopes upon him as their deliverer, and will do their duty in November next.

THE PRESS ON THE FRAUDS IN THE ELECTION.

In urging in yesterday's issue that the election of Governor Caldwell be contested on account of the numerous frauds in the election, we find that we are not the only journal advocating such a measure, but the Wilmington Journal, Sentinel, of this city, and the Greensboro Patriot are likewise of opinion that this step should be taken.

We give place to the following extract from an article in the Wilmington Journal of Thursday, expressive of its views on the subject:

In view, therefore, of all the facts, we demand that Judge Merrimon shall contest the election of Governor Caldwell before the next Legislature.

We do not say this from any ambition of feeling, consequent upon defeat and disappointment, but we demand it as a duty from Judge Merrimon to the Conservative people of North Carolina and of the United States.

From the Legislature of North Carolina we can and will obtain justice. If fraudulent votes have been cast, and of this no reasonable man can entertain a doubt, the patient, honest and intelligent investigation that the Legislature will give the matter will enable the world to see the truth, and the whole truth.

This is all we ask. If we have been fairly beaten—if a majority of the legal votes cast, a week ago to-day, were cast against the Conservative ticket, we do not ask that Judge Merrimon be declared Governor of North Carolina.

We do demand, however, if he was legally elected, that we shall not be cheated out of our victory.

We repeat that we do not speak from mere temper or sordidness or passion, but from a settled determination to have the matter judicially determined.

The Constitution of the State makes it the duty of the Legislature to decide all cases of contested elections for Governor and other officers on the State ticket, under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe.

We now, therefore, formally demand of Judge Merrimon and the other candidates on our State ticket, to contest formally the election of their Radical opponents, so that the Legislature may take the proper steps in the premises.

We demand this in the name of the Conservative people of North Carolina, and of the United States to unite with us in calling upon our friends in all parts of the State to gather up and put upon record the evidences of fraud that now everywhere abound.

We intend that this thing shall be sifted to the bottom.

The honest and good men of North Carolina ask that this matter be investigated, they claim the privilege of making this demand. They do not believe that they have been defeated save by intimidation and fraud and they desire that if such has been the case their will shall not be defeated.

Will our candidates listen to the appeals made to them? It is their duty, they owe it to the people and we believe they will act accordingly.

THE REASON.

The following are some few of the reasons why the old Democratic party should without exception lend their aid to the election of Horace Greeley:

He is honest in his present course and desires to build up the waste places of the whole country, North and South; he is in favor of a reform in the conduct of our National affairs, he plants himself upon the constitution and adopts that as the rule of his action. Universal amnesty, to which many of the people of the South have been, and are still, strangers, is a leading feature in the doctrines which he advocates.

Mr. Greeley is the most available man to place in opposition to Grant, his influence great and his views large.

In short, his policy is one which all can support without hesitancy; it embodies what the country needs, and if any of those who have heretofore been classed as Democrats, now sever their connection with the organization and vote for Grant, it is surely not because any one feature of the Greeley platform is objectionable, but they show their prejudices to control their judgment.

MR. SUMNER.

Mr. Sumner, an account of his recent letter defining his position on the question of National politics, has become the object of the wrath of some of the Northern Republicans. They are mad because they know that Mr. Sumner will add strength to the cause of reform and will do much for its firm establishment and for the overthrow of Grantism in the United States. Their attacks fall harmless, however, against him; their effect is nothing, and reform in America increases each day of its existence.

GENERAL BUTLER.

A few days since we heard a report that General B. F. Butler had given in his adherence to the Greeley movement, and we acknowledge that we heard it with much regret, for we really believe that the accession of such a man to a cause will have a tendency to injure it, and we should seriously doubt whether the reform movement was as pure as it should be if such was the case.

While we hold open the doors of the Liberal movement to all who may see the error of their way, yet we are glad to be able to announce to our readers that General Butler is opposed to Greeley and has taken the stump for Grant.

Hon. Francis Pickensham, First Secretary of the British Legation, starts for London, having been granted leave of absence for several months. It is understood that he will be assigned to another mission. The diplomatic corps and a host of friends regret his departure, as his bachelor entertainments during the past two years have been of most sumptuous character.

THE FALL ELECTIONS.

The following are the next States which vote, and the times of holding the elections: The election in New Mexico comes off on the first of September; September 2; Vermont, September 3; Maine, September 4; Colorado, September 5; Nebraska, September 6; Indiana, Iowa, Nebraska, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia, October 3; South Carolina, October 10; West Virginia, October 24. All the States vote for Presidential electors on the 5th day of November, and on the same day the following choose State officers: Alabama, Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Tennessee, Virginia and Wisconsin. Arizona holds her Territorial election on the 8th of November.

The Washington Chronicle, Grant's organ, run by Senator Harlan, editorially demands that all those clerks in the departments who refuse to pay the assessments made upon them for political purposes be removed. The departments are now being thoroughly canvassed by administration agents for subscriptions to Grant's war chest. The various State Associations have also taken the list of clerks credited to their States, and sent them letters importuning for a tithe of the meager salaries paid them.

A rare specimen of the cactus plant has recently been sent from Colorado to a florist in Rochester, New York. This cactus weighs one hundred and thirty pounds, and in shape resembles a large turtle. It was obtained in the vicinity of Spanish Peaks, in the southern part of Colorado, and was transported in a wagon two hundred miles to Denver, from which point it was conveyed by rail to Rochester. Several hundreds of similar plants are now growing in the neighborhood to Spanish Peaks.

It is thought that the English element of the Internationale will withdraw from the Continental organization, on account of the dissatisfaction with the course that the latter has pursued toward them. A convention of the Internationale will be held at the Hague in September, chiefly for the purpose of making preparations, by revising the statutes, to be able to withstand the legal measures which the various Continental Powers are to take against them.

The children of the late Archduchess Sophia, of Austria, including the Emperor of Austria and his brothers and sisters, have contested their mother's will mainly on the ground that their mother had been partially deranged since 1867. The special evidence of insanity, which she has shown in making her will, was to leave her vast private fortune to her sister, the Queen of Saxony, instead of leaving it to the Imperial Hapsburg family.

Baron D'Offenberg, the Russian Minister, has taken a residence on H street, and due to Nealles, the French Minister, one on G street, Washington, where they will entertain during the season.

There is a report in Massachusetts that Governor Washburne will withdraw in favor of Ben Butler before the Republican Convention at Worcester, the 29th.
